User guide for Organic Eprints

This user guide/manual is a collection of screenshots from Organic Eprints (www.orgprints.org) with instructions how to use the archive. The guide goes through different options of how to register, browse, search, save searches and deposit documents by showing screen shots with short, instructive comments.

Contents

Home ........................................................................................................................................ 3
Register ..................................................................................................................................... 4
  Modify profile .......................................................................................................................... 5
Reset password ........................................................................................................................ 7
Browse ...................................................................................................................................... 9
Search ..................................................................................................................................... 11
  Save search ............................................................................................................................. 14
Deposit paper .......................................................................................................................... 15
  Eprint type ............................................................................................................................. 16
  Document information .......................................................................................................... 17
  Subjects .................................................................................................................................. 19
  Research affiliation ............................................................................................................... 20
  Upload .................................................................................................................................... 21
    Restricted access .................................................................................................................. 22
    Additional documents .......................................................................................................... 23
  FP7-funded projects ............................................................................................................. 23
  Deposit agreement ............................................................................................................... 24
  Preview ................................................................................................................................... 24
Eprint types ............................................................................................................................... 26
Make a new version of an eprint ............................................................................................. 29
Make a copy of an eprint .......................................................................................................... 32
Home

This page: Contains Welcome, with link to more information about the archive, Browse and Search in very simple versions and Register, where you can create an account.

About: information about Organic Eprints, including policy, background and support, open access and copyright issues, statistics and software.

Browse: described in section on Browse.

Search: described in section on Search.

Latest: the Eprints accepted into Organic Eprints within the last week.

Help: the help pages for Organic Eprints.

At the bottom of the page, you can find information about the partners and national editors.

You can also switch the language to German.

You’ll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/
How to become a registered user of Organic eprints

Go to the Organic Eprints homepage at http://www.orgprints.org/.

Click "Create account"

Fill in the required fields

Respond to the email to activate your password

You’ll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/
How to modify your profile

Once you are logged in to Organic Eprints, the top of the pages will look like this:

Click on "Profile" to fill in more details.

Click on 'Modify profile' to edit your account information.
Leaving this blank will not affect your password. To change password, type a new one and click "Save".

Remember to click "Save", when you are finished.
Reset password in Organic eprints

If you have forgotten password or username

On "Home" in Organic Eprints, click "Login"

When you reach the login page, click "Reset"
On the next page, enter your email-address and a new password, then click submit:

Confirm the new password by responding to the email sent to your email address.
In this example we have chosen "Research affiliation", then "Denmark" and finally "DARCOF III", which ends up showing a list of all the DARCOF III projects.
Search

Very simple search

From the Home page, you can carry out a very simple search: Simply type keyword(s), name(s) and/or date(s) in the boxes and click "Search the archive".

For more options, use "Simple" or "Advanced" search.
Simple search

Choose whether the search should include only documents, which fulfil all of the conditions above, or all documents, which fulfil any one of the conditions.

Choose whether the search should include only documents, which contain all of the search terms, or all documents, which contain any one of the search terms.

By clicking a question mark, you expand the explanation as shown below.
Advanced search

Don't pickly leave the fields you don't want to search blank. The terms are case-specific, so Organic will not give the same results as Organic or ORGANIC. Click here for a simple search.

Select the value(s) you wish to search for. If no box is ticked, the system will retrieve eprints with any value in this field (i.e. not use that field to find eprints).

Lists or roll-down menus. You can select one or more values. Select consecutive values by marking the first item, pressing the CAPS button and then marking the last item. Select non-consecutive values by marking each item while holding down the CTRL button. If no value in the list or menu is selected, the system will not use that field to find eprints.
Save search

Click "Save search"

Correct the Name of the search if necessary.

Choose how often to receive an alert, and whether to receive empty alerts.

Choose if you want to make a public URL to the search (e.g. for a website).

Make sure you click "Save".
Instruction on how to deposit a paper in Organic eprints

You’ll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/.

If you’re not already a registered user, please register by creating an account, otherwise login.

On the "Manage deposits" page, click "New item"
Choose "Eprint type" (see Eprint types later in this manual), then click "Next".
Enter the title of your paper as it appears on the first page

Enter additional information (this differs between eprint types)

- Title

- Document Language
  - English
  - German - Deutsch
  - Danish - Danska
  - Czech Republic - Ceska Republika

- Status
  - Published
  - In Press
  - Submitted
  - Unpublished

- Date
  - Year: [Enter year]
  - Month: [Unspecified]
  - Day: [Enter day]

- Date Type
  - Publication
  - Submission
  - Completion

- Publication Details
  - Authors: [Enter author details]

- Contact Email Address

Your email address will not be publicly visible, but used so that anyone interested can "Request a copy" (for papers with restricted access)

Enter additional information (this differs between eprint types)

1. The title of the journal, your paper is published in. If you're depositing a draft, write e.g. 'To be decided' or 'xxx'.

2. Volumes:

3. Issue:

4. Page Range: [ ] to [ ]

5. Online at:

6. ISSN:

7. DOI:

Click "Next".
Add relevant subjects by expanding the trees (click the ‘+’) and clicking "Add".

Do not add more than 3-4 subjects.

Do not add the "trunk" (e.g. Farming Systems”) AND a "branch" (e.g. Farm economics), as the "trunk" will appear together with the branch.

Click "Next"
Add your own affiliations, e.g. project, organization etc.

Click "Next"
Give your paper file a relevant name.

Important
File names should follow some rules. This includes:
- Do not use special characters in the file name (e.g. blanks, accents, ü, ø etc.)
- Choose a clear name for your file, preferably following the format "authorname_year_keyword.doc"

Click "Browse" to find your file, then click "Upload"
After upload, correct metadata and click "Update metadata"

- Visible to: allows you to choose the level of access restriction for this document. Please select as open access as possible. The categories are:
  - Anyone: means access for anyone with internet access (default).
  - Registered users: access only for registered users at Organic Eprints (there are currently over 15,000 registered users, so this should not be used as a way to strictly limit access)
  - Depositor and staff only: access only for yourself and the archive staff. This is useful for papers with copyright requirements (see information about copyright at http://orgprints.org/openaccess.html). Other users will see the information entered for the eprint (e.g. title, authors, summary), but will not be able to open the files attached. Official evaluators can be granted access to all the publications from specific organizations upon agreement with these organizations. You can also use this option for any additional source files that are archived only for your own future use.

- License: Specifies an explicit license for this document (does not affect the access rights you grant). This repository allows Creative Commons licenses. Leave unspecified if this does not apply.

- Embargo expiry date: The date that a publisher- or sponsor-imposed embargo expires. On and after this date, this document will be made publicly accessible. Examples: 2010 - document made publicly accessible on 1st January 2010; 2010 June - document made publicly accessible on 1st June 2010; 2010 June 15 –document made publicly accessible on 15 June 2010.
If you want, you can upload additional material (data, figures, poster or presentation):

Don’t forget to update metadata for the new document!
Click "Next"

If your eprint IS NOT part of an EU FP7-funded project, you can skip this page (no is default). The access rights you set previously on the upload page will not be affected.
If your eprint IS part of an EU FP7-funded project, fill this page out. The FP7 Grant Agreement Number is also termed the Project Reference (i.e. in CORDIS).

Click "Next"
Fact sheet: How to deposit a document in Organic Eprints

v. 1.1 (9 February 2012)

Read the Deposit Agreement, and deposit your paper or save it for later

You’ll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/
If you log out of Organic eprints without depositing your paper, you’ll find it under "Manage deposits" later.

You can then edit it and deposit it.
Eprint types

This fact sheet describes the different eprint types to help you choose the correct type for every eprint.

Journal paper: an article published (or submitted for publication or a draft) in a scientific journal – that is, not newspapers, farmers magazines etc. A journal is characterized by being issued continuously as a series with a common name and by having a year, volume and usually issue (or month). Most scientific journals have an ISSN consisting of 8 digits, two groups of 4 separated by a dash. Internet journals qualify as journals. While journals have publishers and editors, these are not part of the bibliographic information about a journal paper. Papers in journals may have a DOI (digital object identifier). If you deposit a draft of a paper for a journal, you should put it in this eprint type. If you do not yet know which journal you will submit the paper to, fill out Title of Publication with nonsense (e.g. ‘to be decided’ or ‘xxx’) (since it is mandatory) or put the name of the journal you think it is most likely you will publish in. Once you submit, and when the paper is finally published, you can then make the required changes (see “Make a new version of a document in Organic Eprints”).

Newspaper or magazine article: an article published in a regularly published publication that is not a scientific journal. This could be a newspaper, a magazine, a farmer’s journal etc. Newspapers and magazines may or may not have information about volume, but will usually have issue or month or date.

Working paper: a preliminary scientific or technical paper that is published in a series of the institution where the research is done. Also known as research paper, research memorandum or discussion paper. Working papers may also be unpublished, and not intended to be published. A working paper is not a draft. A draft for e.g. a journal paper should be put in the eprint type "Journal paper".

Conference paper, poster etc. (unpublished or published): an article or abstract or presentation or poster from a conference, workshop etc., that has not been published in proceedings or journals, but may be published on the website of the conference or the authors’ institution.

or: an article or abstract from a conference, workshop etc., that has been published in proceedings (papers published in journals would be journal articles). Make sure to fill in the field "Title of publication" since this decides how the citation is shown! A presentation or poster can be attached to the article as an extra document.

Proceedings (unpublished or published): a collection of material from a conference, workshop etc. that has not been published.

or: a collection of papers (which may or may not be peer reviewed) from a conference, symposium, workshop etc. that has been published.

Please check the way the citation looks (tab: Preview) and edit it if there is excess or missing information!
Report: a technical report, a working report, almost anything that is published without being a book. Is usually published by an Institution and has place of publication.

Report chapter: a contribution to a report, such as a chapter or section.

Book: a monography (the same authors are responsible for the whole book) or anthology (editors have collected contributions from several authors and have edited them). Will often have an ISBN-code (10 or 13 digits). Will always have a publisher and place of publication.

Book chapter: Contribution to a book.

Thesis: A thesis or dissertation that forms the work that has awarded the author with a title. May be M.Sc., Ph.D., Eng.D. or other.

Data set: A collection of data in a structured form. Usually the basis of research results.

Teaching resource: a resource that can be utilized in teaching such as an interactive website, game etc. A compendium, set of notes or a presentation could also be a teaching resource, if it is aimed at teaching.

Web product: Text published on the internet, such as blogs, wikis, text on websites etc.

Video:

Audio:

Other: this is for eprint types that do not fit in any of the other types, but not for drafts, as these should be put in the eprint type that they will belong to once submitted. It could be:

Booklet/flyer/pamphlet: a publication that is not a book or report and not a part of a series such as a journal, magazine or newspaper. Usually aimed at dissemination. Often quite short, usually published by an institution. Does usually not have volume, issue, maybe not even page numbers.

Research Programme description: Description of a part of a research programme in a certain subject area, or a full programme.

Organization description: Description of an organization that carries out or is related to research in organic food and farming systems.

Project description: Description of a research project of relevance to organic food and farming systems.

Research facility description: Description of a research facility, where research of relevance to organic food and farming systems is, has been or can be carried out.
Make a new version of document already in Organic eprints

On "Home" in Organic Eprints, click "Login"

and go to "Manage deposits"

Make sure "Live archive" is checked and choose the relevant document by clicking "View item" icon
Click the "Actions" tab

Click "New version"

You now have a new version of the item in your work area, where you can edit it.

You’ll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/
Once you have edited it and deposited the new version, and it has been placed in the live archive by the archive administration, the old version will appear with the text: "There is a more recent version of this item available" with a link to the most recent version.

At the bottom of the page, the different versions of the document will be shown:

In the most recent version, this is shown:

The different versions are also shown at the bottom of that page.
Make a "copy" of document already in Organic Eprints

If you have several papers in the same conference proceedings or otherwise similar

On "Home" in Organic Eprints, click "Login"

and go to "Manage deposits"

Make sure "Live archive" is checked and choose the relevant document by clicking "View item" icon
You'll find Organic eprints here: http://www.orgprints.org/
You now have a copy of the item in your work area, where you can edit it.

Please note, that if you make a copy, and then change the eprint type, information that belongs to the first eprint type, but not the new one, is retained, and will be shown. So be sure to delete any information not relevant to the new eprint type. Check by clicking "Preview" tab and see how the eprint looks and if there is any "wrong" information, especially at the bottom of the abstract page. If so, change to the original eprint type, delete the excess information, and change back to the correct eprint type. Check "Preview" again!