

present:

Migration to Europe: a poster exhibition

The exhibition will feature a number of works that were submitted to an international call for design entitled “Migration to Europe: Can It Work for Development?” This poster contest was facilitated by the Czech Council on Foreign Relations in 2010. Two hundred and eighteen students from Austria, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, France, Great Britain, Italy, Montenegro, Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia and Slovakia, participated in the project.

“Migration in Europe”

|art|SPACE, Lázenská 2

180 00 Praha 1 – Malá strana

May 9 -28 2012

This opening will kick off the Prague Transeuropa Festival, a unique transnational festival of culture, arts and politics, taking place in 14 cities all over Europe.

The festival is not 14 different festivals happening at the same time, but one festival taking place throughout the continent.

Opening reception:
May 9, 2012
18:30

Transeuropa Festival:

9 – 20 May, 2 – 3 June 2012

www.transeuropafestival.eu